

Come celebrate.....
“Festival of Art and Culture”

Come celebrate The Festival of Art and Culture on Tuesday, May 9th from 5:30 to 8:00 p.m. at Dallastown Middle School (700 New School Lane, cafeteria). Student art work will be displayed throughout the building. This year’s theme is, “Don’t Let Your Culture Get in the Way of Experiencing Others.” Don’t miss this opportunity.

Come and experience the cultural diversity of the Dallastown community! You may sample food from around the world! Learn cultural traditions by visiting cultural booths from over 30 countries. There will be appetizers, main courses and desserts from the native countries of our students. You will also be entertained by local students and dance troupes. Entertainment begins at 5:30 p.m. in the auditorium.

Admission is free for Dallastown students. There is $2.00 admission fee for adults to sustain the Festival for the following year. See you on May 9th!
